

ACT Information Hub Volunteer (Oncology)

Are you a friendly person who likes talking to people? Are you passionate about the excellent work that the Addenbrooke's and Rosie's Hospitals do? Do you want to help them to do more for cancer services?

Then get in touch and find out about becoming an ACT Information Hub Volunteer!

Why we need you

Addenbrookes Charitable Trust (ACT) is the only fundraising charity dedicated to supporting the Addenbrooke's and Rosie Hospitals to do more.

Thousands of people come through the doors of Addenbrooke's every day. We need your help to raise awareness of how people can support cancer services across Addenbrooke's, by donating, fundraising, or volunteering for our charity.

What you will do

As an ACT Information Hub Volunteer you will be the face of ACT. You'll be based on one of our new Hospital Hubs in the oncology department, talking to people about our charity, and raising awareness of the different ways that they can get involved.

What skills are we looking for?

You will be friendly, enjoy talking to a wide range of people and passionate about supporting cancer services across Addenbrooke's.

What time can you give?

We are looking for volunteers to give their time on a weekday with an aim of volunteering for a minimum of 6 months.

What we will do for you

You will be joining a growing, friendly volunteer team and the time you give will make a real difference to people's lives.

Training for the role will be provided as well as ongoing support.

We will cover travel expenses and provide a reference after two months in the team.
